Mr P V Dhopatkar for applicant

CORAM; A.M.KHANWILKAR J.

DATED l6.l.2006

P.C.

. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant. The reasons mentioned in the application, in my opinion, does not disclose sufficient cause for condoning the delay of one year and 346 days. However, in the interest of justice relief in terms of prayer clause (a) is granted on condition that the applicant shall pay costs quantified at Rs.3000/- to be paid to the High Court Legal Aid Authority within two weeks from today and acknowledgement of the payment to be produced within the said period, failing which office to proceed on the assumption that the application has been dismissed for non prosecution. However, if the costs is paid as aforesaid, application to be numbered subject to applicant removing office objections within two weeks from the date of payment of costs as aforesaid, failing which the revision shall stand dismissed for non prosecution without further reference to the court. If all the office objections in the revision application are removed, revision application to be registered and placed for admission as per its turn subject to above.
